Fables de La Fontaine

Jean de La Fontaine

Fables de La Fontaine Jean de La Fontaine

French language text. Over-sized: Quarto (12 X 9 X 1.75 inches); 4 lbs., 11 oz.

Contains 320 black-and-white illustrations by French artist, engraver, illustrator and sculptor Paul Gustave Dore (1832-1883).

De La Fontaine's Fables provide delight to three different ages: the child rejoices in the freshness and vividness of the story, the eager student of literature in the consummate art with which it is told, the experienced man of the world in the subtle reflections on character and life which it conveys.

Jean de La Fontaine (1621-1695) was the most famous French fabulist and one of the most widely read French poets of the 17th century. He is known above all for his Fables, which provided a model for subsequent fabulists across Europe and numerous alternative versions in France, and in French regional languages.
