He broke me, he lied to me, he used me and then he left me. Physically and emotionally I was broken and not just a little broken, I was obliterated. I was in so many pieces it took a long time for me to even gather enough pieces to even begin rebuilding. But, the important thing is I did. I'm not one-hundred percent yet, heck I probably will never be completely healed but that's okay because I made it. I'm alive. I use my pain as fuel now. When I want to give up I think of all my hurt and anger and it pushes me to keep going.

A year and half ago I died. It was my mistake and if I could do it over again I would, but I can't. What's done is done. All I can do now is move forward and try to forget I ever loved Cutter Daniels.
