Morning Is a Long Time Coming (Summer of My German Soldier Book 2) Bette Greene

In the sequel to Summer of My German Soldier, Patty Bergen sets out to find Anton's mother—and the love she lost

It has been six years since Patty Bergen hid German war prisoner Anton Reiker in the room above her family's garage. Six years since Anton was hunted down and killed before Patty's eyes. Six years since she was branded a "Jew Nazi-lover," kicked out of school, and sent to a reformatory.

No one in the small town of Jenkinsville has forgotten what she did, and Patty's graduation from high school is bittersweet. As lonesome as ever, Patty decides to use the money her parents set aside for college tuition to travel to Europe in search of Anton's mother. But while Patty searches for the last connection to her lost love, she might find even more than she was looking for.

This ebook features an illustrated biography of Bette Greene including rare photos and never-before-seen documents from the author's personal collection.
