The Girl In The Window Charles R Hutson

Stefanie Reynolds is upset all around when she has to move to the little town of Greenville because her father has taken a new job. She had to leave all her friends back in the city to come to a dinky little town in the middle of nowhere where she doesn't know a soul. She's not looking forward to the most boring summer of her life! Then she sees a girl about her age who lives right next door, but the old woman who lives with her, won't let her come out to visit. When Stefanie meets a boy also about her age and they compare stories...she realizes that something is just not right in this little town. It isn't until she meets the old man with the knife that she understands she is in for the adventure of her young life!
