Are you about to get goldfish? This detailed, easy to understand book will guide you through the process of becoming a goldfish keeper, from choosing your goldfish to preparing for their arrival and making sure they have the right environment to thrive in. There is a wealth of useful information here, written by vet Dr Gordon Roberts, who runs 8 animal hospitals around the UK.

You'll learn:

- The different varieties of goldfish, and which ones live best together
- The best places to buy your goldfish and the warning signs of places you should avoid
- How to create the ideal water quality and conditions for your fish to thrive in
- Step by step instructions for cleaning your aquarium the correct way, without ruining your water quality
- How to spot the signs of illness in your fish, and what to do about common goldfish ailments
- What to feed your goldfish, and why your fish can't just survive on fish flakes

...And so much more! You'll also find a handy FAQ section at the back of the book, which you can refer to again and again as needed. We hope you enjoy reading the book. Your goldfish are going to thank you for it!
