'Please don't make me go!' Joshua Griffiths

This book follows a nervous boy and his mum on their way to school on his very first day. What horrors will be awaiting him when he gets there? Ben tries hard to convince his mother not to take him in but when he gets there he has so much fun learning, making friends, playing, hearing stories and eating his favourite food that at home time he doesn't want to come home! This book has been used widely as a successful resource in helping children to transition into primary school. Its friendly design and story are ideal for children who need that push to gain the confidence to have a fantastic time in school.
