"The writing will make you think the author knows you or some part of you"

- Gabrielo Banks

"Renders the reader with a metaphysical sense of protection, somewhat angelic."

"A mixed feeling of both friendship and admiration is expressed through content and completion."

"It has been a pleasure for me to read and analyze this short emotional and intellectual aperitif of poetry."

- Anonymous poet

Each of the seven poems in this book is dedicated to a person, who will tell you something about themselves and about others. The people are expecting something, and, at times, this may be something missing. They take big steps, fall and fly...do little things, smell lemon tea and meatballs. They keep secrets, and sometimes, they share one.
