Adventures of Larry Lamb and Friends contains 10 short stories and a guide to teach biblical principles through these stories. It is a wonderful book for grandparents or parents to buy for their children or grandchildren. I believe any child from 2nd grade up would love this book. The stories are fun and informative about life's issues and the guide helps use the stories and the Bible to find answers to these issues. The short stories are full of adventures with animals and children characters solving all kinds of life's problems.
