Palm Beach, the fastest growing county in America, is home to the nation's upper crust. Both old and new money flock here for the season, and the houses that line the beach and inland waterways exhibit a remarkable range of styles and individual approaches to living under the sun. This book includes the homes of Dorothy Spreckels Munn, Lilly Pulitzer Rousseau, Edward and Pat Cook and 17 others. The book focuses on interiors and exteriors and discusses the evolution of the tropical house, and includes a source list of local architects, designers, art dealers, antique dealers, and artists.
