Every family has one—the black sheep, the problem child, the prodigal. But Dominic Sean Love could teach all of those guys a lesson or two. Stuck in the middle of a boisterous group of siblings, he's given “acting out” a new meaning from the day he drew his first breath.

While he's the one son who follows his strict father's footsteps into the Love family business, he's also the one who butts heads with him the hardest. Their epic clashes are the stuff of family legend. But they have made peace and work side by side to take Love Brewing to the next level of success.

Until Dominic does the one thing his father can never forgive.

Diana Brantley has been Dominic's friend, girlfriend and ex-girlfriend so many times she's lost count. When he shows up at the farm she's slowly transforming into a wildly popular farm-to-table resource for restaurants all over the U.S. her first impulse is to shoot first and ask questions later. But she doesn't. And their lives entwine once more, for good, bad and ugly.
