This is an explosive book on the underground world of White Collar crimes at its finest, a world that is rarely seen or talked about. Kevin Brown got arrested and charged with conspiracy because of the association he remained with some of his friends that were still selling drugs. Afraid of losing a conspiracy case to the government at trial and ending up with a lengthy prison sentence he took a plea deal. Fueled with anger at the judiciary system for incarcerating him for a crime he was not part of a new hustle was easily introduced to him. With idle time in the penal system and thoughts of making easy money he decided to embark on the new hustle upon his release. While serving his time in a federal prison he organized a group of Africans all specializing in different white collar crimes. Upon their release Kevin Brown led the crew in putting their plans into action. Their plans worked and brought them great success netting them large amount of money anyone will envy. This story touches on the fastest growing crime in the world that generates a lot of money in a matter of hours or days which anyone can become a victim to.
