Ethan "Blues" Sloane tells all about his time on the inside of the Southeast's most notorious drug cartel. The chaos that comes with being the second in command of the deadly X'kapz is nothing compared to the anarchy that ensues when Blues meets Angel. WARNINGThis book is not intended for anyone under the age of 18, offended easily by steamy sex scenes and/or foul language. A sex-god's story will most definitely melt your panties off, so have an extra pair on standby...maybe two pair. Baptized into the world of the southeast's leading drug cartel, Ethan Sloane lives an existence riddled with betrayal. Raised the eldest son of the Lieutenant in the infamous X'kapz cartel, Ethan's grim reality is accepting his fate of walking in his father's footsteps. Buried beneath deep layers of trained acceptance and lies, lurks a decent man needing escape. Ethan breaks through the hard surface of deceit, extracting his coveted freedom. Resurfacing exactly the opposite of what he fears the fates planned, Ethan becomes a well respected Atlanta Police Officer, finally on the right side of the law. Even living the good life, he is driven with a relentless desire to inflict punishment for the wrong committed against his family. Deciding that retribution is worth throwing away the good, he goes undercover to infiltrate the deadly X'kapz. Almost immediately, Ethan "Blues" Sloane is promoted to second in command, the same role once held by his father. Unexpectedly, Blues discovers that drugs aren't the only thing in this world that is addictive. Angel is the erotically beautiful woman with the good girl history mixed with a bad girl attitude. She is a major distraction for a man whose one constant is obtaining the truth. Evading Angel's allure so that he can finish what he started and get everyone that he cares about out alive becomes a difficult mission. In his shadowy hell, she is the lone beacon guiding him toward something better. Lies can drown a person, consume and erase one's soul. Nevertheless, if used properly they also hold the power to save. Keeping his undercover role a secret is paramount to everyone's survival. Unfortunately for Blues, withholding the truth from Angel equals giving up all hope of a life that promises true love. Blues discovers that giving up something that you desperately crave is easier said than done. This isn't a pretty story, nothing about drugs ever is, but the romance that surfaces within the dark life of a cop submerged under the criminal's lies is Ethan's, and can only be called All Blues.
