Experience A Story Through Art as well as Words with "Gina Cavalier's - How I Became Santa Claus." A Touching Holiday Tale Where the Illustrations are as Captivating as the Storytelling. Follow one little boy with a big destiny...to become the next Santa Claus. In Gina Cavalier's premiere book, readers will journey with Nick, an eight-year-old boy, as he faces magical creatures, a formative foe and life-changing decisions that will determine his fate and the future of Santa Claus. Told through fifty one hand drawn illustrations, "Gina Cavalier's - How I Became Santa Claus" is a story of hope, dreams, magic and beauty. "Gina Cavalier's - How I Became Santa Claus" Combines Beautifully Hand drawn Art and a captivating narrative to form a unique and meaningful Holiday Story that's sure to become a Favorite. Inspired by three enchanting pieces she discovered in a Park City, Utah thrift store (a bird house general store, whimsical snowman and old Santa), Cavalier put years of film and television writing and illustrating experience to work to form a visual and reading experience that all ages can enjoy. A story that not only accompanies striking artwork, but tells of respecting fellow man, who he is, where he comes from and the importance of withholding judgment unless having walked in his shoes.
