Night of the Grizzly Michael L Lewis

Frank moved like a human tiger, bending to study the ground with a quick keen alertness. In the distance behind and above him, he heard the search helicopters flying in wild and desperate patterns. He paid them no mind as he moved quickly forward, knowing that the hikers would die with the coming of night, if they weren't dead already. Frank traveled light, trusting his life to his skills. He never challenged the forces of nature, he respected them. But he knew he could efficiently live off the land for weeks at a time and could improvise shelter even in the most hostile weather. Frank suddenly stopped dead in his tracks halfway up the mountainside when he came across a log covered in blood. He carefully stepped across and came upon a severed arm frozen in the snow, and then another, further out he could faintly see a pair of legs, but nothing more. The body had either been eaten or dragged someplace else.
