Servants of Two Masters (Mina Balestra trilogy Book 1) John Johnson

Mina Balestra is as surprised as anyone to be appointed Commissario of the Imola Settore Investigativo, given that her new boss thinks she's incompetent and easily manipulated. But that's the least of her worries. Right now, she's busy divorcing a rich and abusive husband, her private life is a mess, and she has a mystery stalker to be dealing with.

Just when things can't get any worse, a single mother is found brutally murdered, the only suspects the victim's taciturn boyfriend and a missing woman. Balestra is drawn into a murky world of backroom deals and hidden agendas surrounding an unscrupulous entrepreneur, and before long she'll have to decide whether to cut the riskiest deal of her life.

Servants of Two Masters is a fast-paced tale of double-crossings, misunderstandings and murder, organized crime and political corruption set in a small town in central Italy. It is the first of a series of novels featuring Commissario Mina Balestra and her colleagues, the insolent Ligeti and the lovestruck Berti.
