Frankie Prudence MacLeod, Crystianna Crawford

Carrie flees from the demons of her present, trying to protect the ones she loves. Frankie hides from the demons of her past, and the memory of loved ones she failed to protect. A modern day princess thrown to the wolves, Carrie's only hope is the rancher who had spent the better part of a decade in self imposed, near total, isolation. Frankie's history of losing those she tries to save haunts her, but this madman threatens her home, her livestock, her sanctuary. She knows she can't do it alone, has she still got enough support from her oldest friends?
