Life is a collection of times and seasons. There is a time to be born, a time to die and many seasons in between. Life can also be likened to a race where you have a starting line and a finish line. Every man or woman has a unique race to run. The interesting thing about our unique race is that we all have different starting lines, lanes to run on as well as different finish lines. Hence we are not competing against each other but rather competing to ensure we make it to the finish line and that we finish strong. Every living member of the human race belongs to one of three categories. The first category is those who do not know anything about the race they are running. The second category is those who know about the race they need to run but are stuck in another race called the rat race. And the third category is those who are free from the rat race and are now in their race of purpose and destiny. I call this the God race. Unfortunately many people die without ever getting out of the rat race to the God race. This book will help the reader to find their way out of the rat race and onto their predestined God race. This is truly the beginning of a purpose driven and fulfilling life. Never forget that the quality of a person's life is measured by their donation rather than duration. Every human being that God has created can benefit from this book as its content helps to give answers to these five most important questions about life. Who am I? Where Did I come from? Why am I here? What can I do? Where am I going? The people that will benefit the most are those who are aware that they are stuck in the rat race and need to know how to get out to a better life of purpose and fulfillment. This book was written under the leading of the Lord to give hope to the people who are frustrated with the life of working jobs just to make a living. Firstly, readers will receive hope that there is a way out. Secondly the reader will learn of practical steps to get out. Thirdly the reader will be provoked to pursue God to discover their real purpose on earth and their true source of joy and fulfillment. The book will motivate them to start taking necessary steps to change their lives.
