When widowed Ian McDougal captures Helena Douglas, daughter of the British lord occupying his lands, he intends to use her as a leverage to ensure that the cruel lord gives his people a reprieve. Little does he know that the woman he's capturing hates the Lord almost as much as he does, and despite her resistance he finds himself falling for the spirited English girl.

To prevent her retrieval he needs to enter into a political marriage with her, but intends to remain "chaste," which proves easier said than done.

With entire clans preparing for war to free their people, Helena and Ian's growing relationship will cause fury on both sides - but they'll have to stick together if they both want to get out alive.

This book contains explicit 18+ sex scenes and is intended for mature readers only.
