This book contains a selection of papers presented at a Symposium on coding theory: "3 Journées sur le Codage", held November 24-26, 1986, in Cachan near Paris, France. It gives an account of the state of the art of research in France on Coding, ranging from rather theoretical topics like algebraic geometry and combinatorial coding to applications like modulation, real-space decoding and implementation of coding algorithms on microcomputers. The symposium was the second one of this type. With its broad spectrum, it was a unique opportunity for contacts between university and industry on the topics of information and coding theory.

Are you kind of busy person, only have 10 or maybe 15 minute in your day to upgrading your mind talent or thinking skill also analytical thinking? Then you have problem with the book compared to can satisfy your limited time to read it because this time you only find guide that need more time to be go through. Coding Theory and Applications: 2nd International Colloquium, Cachan-Paris, France, November 24-26, 1986. Proceedings (Lecture Notes in Computer Science) can be your answer since it can be read by a person who have those short free time problems.
