Jamie Dornan's exclusive Interview Magazine cover story . . . his career, New Worlds, The Fall, and Fifty Shades of Grey. Quotes from the article: - When I mention that he's often played characters with two sides, he agrees. "That's true. Even Christian has two sides. Come to think of it, he has 50." When I laugh, he barely suppresses a chuckle in response. "I guess I'm gonna be using that line all over the planet in a few months. Shouldn't waste it." - "I don't like my physique. Who does? I was a skinny guy growing up, and I still feel like that same skinny kid." - I don't understand people complaining about babies. Sure, I miss a bit of sleep, but look at the rewards-better than not being able to sleep because of a hangover." - I think there was so much more to Christian that we covered-someone who is careful to keep himself in shape, someone who spends obscene amounts of money on presenting himself. A lot of that work was done in the gym and with costume. We didn't talk about particulars of the way he would move. But I'm quite awkward in a suit because I don't have an opportunity to wear a suit very often, and this is a guy who lives in a suit-the best suit. That has to have an effect. But when you end up in a suit for 80 percent of the filming process, you become pretty comfortable with it. Read the full Interview and more in this issue of Interview Magazine!
