B through Y: The Underdog's Process of Seizing Opportunity, Control, and Respect Marcus W. Johnson

Underestimation is such a gift...if viewed this way. Underdogs have far more advantages than they give themselves credit for. What lies at most frustration is the time it takes to get over the hump. In a "microwave society" which promotes the A to Z quick fix, B through Y highlights the importance of the process.

Interestingly, this is where the real magic happens! Often it's one action, characteristic or combination that transforms an underdog's situation. This book sparks inspiration as well as equips readers with unique and insightful strategies for advancement. Being the underdog isn't all that bad. Here's how to make it work for you.
