Nothing about this kidnapping makes sense.

An army colonel's daughter isn't a typical target, and that's only the beginning. FBI Special Agent Marcella Scott knows that 'unusual' also means unpredictable and that translates to dangerous.

Just when they need to be at their sharpest, Agent Scott's partner, Special Agent Ken Yamada suffers from personal distractions. He's had to make painful sacrifices for his career. When the young girl's abduction brings him face to face with one of those sacrifices, Major Chuck Mathews, Yamada begins to question his choices.

In their desperate search for the girl, the agents face foes willing to use deadly force to protect their secrets. But what was hidden before can now be revealed and the truth could change everything.
