Imagine Me: A Novel Charles Alverson

When you swim with Hollywood's biggest sharks, sometimes you end up as lunch.

Struggling movie producer Jake Borden might possess a silver tongue, but his abilities don't translate to success on the silver screen. With no work and fewer clients, a repossessed car and a lease well past due are the the only assets Jake has to his name.

But when he meets the troubled daughter of a wealthy middle aged woman, Jake starts to form a less than scrupulous plan to make his way to the top. Only thing is, he might not survive the hostile waters long enough to reach the summit...

A hilarious, razor-witted satire of Hollywood and American Dream, Imagine Me is Charles Alverson at his finest.
