The Peacemakers (American Family Portrait Book 8) Jack Cavanaugh

America's most unpopular war unleashes violence at home and abroad as the country's spiritual foundation is shaken as never before. Set against the turbulent backdrop of the volatile 60's, the Morgan household—with their rich legacy of patriotism—erupts in discord as Paige protests the military draft and her brother's imminent departure for Vietnam. However, she is soon disillusioned by the deadly agendas of the protest leaders, and when Travis returns from the war broken and cynical, she embarks on one final crusade—to restore her brother to the family faith.
