William Barret Travis (Texas Heroes) Robert E Hollmann

With a slash of his blade, William Barrett Travis drew a line in the sand and called on the defenders of the Alamo to stand with him in the cause of liberty. He was accompanied by his ever-reliable sword 'Trusty', who witnesses all the action during that epic siege that came to define the courage and valor of the Texas revolutionaries. Ride with Travis and Trusty as they join the small band of men who would go on to become immortal legends. They would stand for thirteen days against the massive army of Santa Anna, and fall at the end as the Alamo passed from history into legend.
